What is PeaceZone about?

Musicians, artists, returned aid workers and volunteers or simply partisans of a better world are invited to join up and "come camp for peace" in the beautiful surroundings of Charleville Castle in Tullamore. Membership to Peace Zone is only €10 and gives entrance to Shakefest's many activities and one night free camping within the castle grounds. New PeaceZone members can join at the gate on Friday May 29th after 6pm and camp on Saturday, Sunday and Monday for only €10 per extra night.

A wide range of manifestations will take place at the castle on the Saturday. A forum on the theme "Ireland Must Pioneer Civilian Peacekeeping Operations" will be open for discussion to all members; a holistic fair, art exhibitions and many exotic stalls will brighten your journey through the launch of Peace Zone; workshops like Flamenco, Salsa, Circus Skills and Belly-dancing will also take place in the castle. Music and dance performances will be provided by some of the PeaceZone member artists Lauren Guillery, Erik Noon & The Future Gypsies, The Bionic Rats, Oliver Cole, Leanne Harte, SuperJimenez and the Red Embers & Starfire Circus Bellydance Troupe.

All amenities on site will be organized for you such as a special BBQ area and catering facilities.
